Company Description:	Frescatto is a Brazilian seafood company established in 1944. It serves over 13,000 clients across Brazil, supplying both local and imported seafood, including products from Alaska. In 2023, Frescatto imported $180 million in seafood, with $800,000 specifically from the U.S., focusing on black cod, salmon roe, halibut, and sockeye salmon. The company's brands, Frescatto and Buona Pesca, serve both food service and retail sectors. Frescatto Company serves a diverse clientele across Brazil, including major retail chains and food service establishments. Their products are available in over 12,000 points of sale nationwide, encompassing supermarkets, restaurants, hotels, and bars. Notable retail partners include Zona Sul, Super Nosso Atacadão, and Nordesteão, which are prominent supermarket chains in Brazil. In the food service sector, Frescatto supplies seafood to esteemed restaurants such Ohka and Makoto in São Paulo, and Mayu in Belo Horizonte.

Company Description:	This company, established in Ajman, UAE in 2006, is a medium sized importer, distributor, wholesaler and re-exporter of seafood products. The company imports frozen shrimps from India, Vietnam and China; frozen squid tubes and crab sticks from China; frozen crab meat from Indonesia and fish fillet from Vietnam and Tanzania. The company also purchases sliced whole and cut salmon; lobsters whole and tails as well as mussels locally. About 75 percent of the company's products are destined to the foodservice sector, 15 percent to the retail sector and 10 percent re-exported mostly to Saudi Arabia. In addition to its offices in the UAE, the company also maintains branches in Jeddah and Dammam, Saudi Arabia. The company is interested in importing scallops and cod fillet from the United States, if their prices are competitive. The company could be a good source of information on the seafood trade in the UAE and Saudi Arabia and could be a candidate for visits by trade team members carrying seafood products. http://www.sealand-foods.com/
